Curriculum Module

Introduction
Being Part of a Team Curriculum Module

Directions for Use

Being Part of a Team is a curriculum module that has been prepared for two groups of people. First, the instructors, for whom we wish to provide a curriculum that can be used to complement their teaching skills and help them to educate nurse aides to remain knowledgeable, efficient, and caring. Second, the nurse aides, for whom we wish to provide the knowledge and skills necessary to remain competent and current in their provision of care.

Curriculum Pages

Each objective has been featured on a single page divided into two areas - Content Area and Instructor Notes.

- The “Content” area included in each part of the curriculum module outlines the lecture information to be covered in order to meet the objective. Handouts, written activities, discussions, and overheads complimenting each part of the curriculum module are also included.

- The "Notes" area for each part of the curriculum module includes a blank area specially designed for instructor notes. Instructors may choose to write notes beforehand, during class, or afterwards. The notes may serve as reminders for the instructor or may include additional content or examples.

Overhead Transparencies

Each of the three parts of the curriculum module contains a set of overhead transparencies. Each transparency corresponds with a specific objective or objectives and includes information gleaned from curriculum pages. Each transparency is numbered and corresponds with the curriculum content. Even though use of overhead transparencies by the instructor is optional, their use may be an effective teaching tool for nurse aides who are visual learners.
Handouts

A set of handouts for each part of the curriculum module is included. Each handout is numbered and corresponds with specific content. Handouts include information gleaned from each of the three parts of the curriculum module. The master copy of each handout should be duplicated and distributed to each nurse aide at the appropriate time during the lecture sequence. Participants should be encouraged to complete appropriate portions of handouts, based on information provided during lecture.

Written Activities

Written learning activities are designed to enhance understanding of the content included in the curriculum module. Completion of each written activity requires the application of concepts learned by the health care provider.

Each written activity corresponds to a specific objective or objectives and is coded with a number corresponding with curriculum content. A master copy of each written activity and an instructor key (when applicable) are included. The master copy of each written activity should be duplicated and distributed to each health care provider at the appropriate time during the lecture sequence.

Group Discussions

Group discussions are done after each health care provider has completed written activity worksheets and are based on the answers to the worksheets. Group discussions are facilitated by the instructor and allow the health care providers to voluntarily answer the questions on the written activity worksheets.
Description:

Being Part of a Team is a curriculum module designed for the nurse aide employed in a variety of health care settings. Effective teams do not just happen. Creating an effective team requires specific knowledge, skills, and effort. A nurse aide may be a member of a variety of groups and/or teams. The knowledge gained from this module may therefore be used by the nurse aide, both in the health care setting and outside the boundaries of a health care institution.

Objectives:

1. Identify three types of groups.
2. Describe what it is like to be a part of a working group, also known as a team.
3. Describe the stages of team development.
4. List the features of effective teams with committed team members.
5. List the features of ineffective teams with non-committed team members.
6. Identify patterns of communication among team members.
7. Compare positive and negative roles demonstrated by members of a team.

Teaching Methods:

- Lecture;
- Overhead Transparencies (Optional);
- Worksheets;
- Role Play; and
- Class Discussion

Method of Evaluation:

In order to meet requirements for the curriculum module, the nurse aide must:

- Attend the entire class;
- Participate in class discussions; and
- Complete each of the four worksheets;
- Pass the “closed book” written test with a minimum grade of 80.

3. Informal

- Informal structure.
- Group does not have to follow written rules, but is based on unwritten rules, standards of acceptable behavior of members, and strong code of ethics.
- Group is purely practical and has very basic objectives.
- Group assigns duties to members best qualified for certain duties.
- Leaders are easily replaced when mistakes are made.
- Harmony and group friendship are needed to maintain the group.
- Group members talk and relate to each other’s at will.

Team Building Worksheet

Instructions: Read the Descriptions for Team Number One and Team Number Two. Answer the questions about each team. You have 10 minutes to complete the worksheets.

Team Number One

I am a member of a team. I am a cafeteria manager. I am responsible for supervising the cafeteria employees, developing policies, ordering food and supplies, and working with state regulators. I have a two-year management degree from the local community college and have worked at the nursing home ten years.

Other members of my team include dietetic technicians, cafeteria servers, and cooks. Dietetic technicians place food and drinks on resident trays and transport trays to and from the nursing units. Cafeteria servers are responsible for serving food and drinks to people eating in the nursing home cafeteria. Cooks are responsible for cooking and preparing all food that is eaten in the nursing home. Dietetic technicians and cooks are required to have high school diplomas. Cafeteria servers are not required to have a high school diploma.

The nursing home employs one cafeteria manager. Five dietetic technicians are needed to work each day at the nursing home (three work on first shift and two work on second shift). Four cafeteria servers are needed to work each day at the nursing home (two work on first shift and two work on second shift). Four cooks are needed to work each day at the nursing home (two work on first shift and two work on second shift).

1. I am a member of what kind of team? (Check one.)
   - ______ Hierarchical
   - ______ Collegial

2. Who is the leader of my team? (Check one.)
   - ______ Cafeteria Manager
   - ______ Dietetic Technicians

Team Number Two

I am a member of a team. The chair of my team is a physician. I am a Registered Dietician. I make sure residents are receiving the proper diets and the proper supplements. I read the residents’ charts and note weights, intake, and lab reports. I have a Masters Degree and I have worked at the nursing home three years.

Other members of my team include a physician, the Director of Nursing, a speech therapist, a pharmacist, and a social worker. The physician is in charge of the medical care of each of the residents and is the leader of the team. The Director of Nursing is responsible for the entire nursing staff. The speech therapist assists residents with oral communications problems. The pharmacist receives orders for medications, prepares medications for the residents, and checks lab reports. The social worker counsels residents and helps locate community and financial resources.

The physician has a medical degree. The Director of Nursing, social worker, and pharmacist each have advanced educational degrees.

The team meets once a month. Members of the team trust each other and work well together. The members function well as a team and as a whole. Team members appear relaxed during meetings and communication is always open and pleasant. Each of the team members are valued, always prepared, and carries out their duties. The team members rarely quarrel. Disagreements are always discussed and problems worked out.

Team Building Worksheet Answer Key for Team Number Two

I am a member of a team. The chair of my team is a physician. I am a Registered Dietician. I make sure residents are receiving the proper diets and the proper supplements. I read the residents' charts and note weights, intake, and lab reports. I have a Masters Degree and I have worked at the nursing home three years.

Other members of my team include a physician, the Director of Nursing, a speech therapist, a pharmacist, and a social worker. The physician is in charge of the medical care of each of the residents and is the leader of the team. The Director of Nursing is responsible for the entire nursing staff. The speech therapist assists residents with oral communications problems. The pharmacist receives orders for medications, prepares medications for the residents, and checks lab reports. The social worker counsels residents and helps locate community and financial resources.

The physician has a medical degree. The Director of Nursing, social worker and pharmacist each have advanced educational degrees.

The team meets once a month. Members of the team trust each other and work well together. The members function well as a team and as a whole. Team members appear relaxed during meetings and communication is always open and pleasant. Each of the team members are valued, always prepared, and carries out their duties. The team members rarely quarrel. Disagreements are always discussed and problems worked out.

One-way

- Verbal communication moves one way
- Highly planned/controlled by leader
- Nonverbal responses may affect leader
- Leader may permit questions or comments
- Efficient way to communicate to lots of people
- Not good for decision making or evaluation
- Example, lecture
Patterns of Communication

Stilted

- Verbal communication flows both ways
- Slightly formal and structured pattern
- Members take turns to speak in formal manner
- Communication directed toward leader
- Everyone has a chance to speak
- Discussions discouraged

Limited

- May or may not communicate with each other
- Can result from strong smaller group
Patterns of Communication
Open

• Free and easy exchange
• Members can speak/be heard/get a response
• Communication is planned/expected, flexible.
• Members know what to expect
• Not a great way to make decisions
Patterns of Communication

Chaotic

• Leader has no control of group
• Disorganized/unpredictable/out of control
• Side conversations
• Members are interrupted and ignored
• Members talk at the same time and shout
• May be relaxed or tense
• Not a good way to meet if goals must be met
Roles of Team Members

Team Roles

Are positive or negative patterns of individual behavior that affect the team. One person can assume one role or many roles.

Three Components of a Team Meeting

1. Leader – oversees the team
2. Recorder – writes down things done
3. Members – participants of the team
Roles of Team Members

Positive Roles

+ Contributor
+ Coordinator
+ Information giver
+ Elaborator
+ Information seeker
+ Energizer
+ Opinion giver
+ Summarizer
+ Opinion seeker
+ Gatekeeper
+ Disagreer
+ Follower
Roles of Team Members

Negative Roles

- Aggressor
- Zipper-mouth
- Recognition Seeker
- Busy body
- Monopolizer
- Squasher
- Dominator
- Interrupter
- Playboy

Role Play Activity #1

Instructions: This is a skit that includes 6 characters. If you are assigned a part, take five minutes to read over the skit. If you are not assigned a part, take a small stretch break and do not read the skit.

Sally: Hello everyone. I am really glad you could make it for today’s meeting. As you know, we are here to plan for Mrs. Smith’s surprise 100th birthday party. Jane, will you take notes please?

Jane: Sure. I’ll be glad...

Mary: [Interrupts Jane.] Well, we sure better hurry up and plan this thing because Mrs. Smith sure isn’t getting any younger, you know!

Jean: Well, since her birthday falls on a Saturday this year, why don’t we have it on the exact day of her birthday?

Joanne: [Rolls her eyes and speaks in a sarcastic tone.] Gee, Jean what a great idea. We’ll have her birthday party on her birthday! While we are at it, why don’t we plan the Halloween Party on Halloween day and our Columbus Day Party on Columbus Day. Oh brother, give me a break.

[Betty enters room. Betty sits down at the table.]

Betty: Hi there. Sorry I’m late, but I got stuck at the beauty salon.

Joanne: Based on how your hair looks, you should’ve stayed there a little while longer.

Betty: Oh Joanne, you’re such a kidder.

Joanne: [Mumbles to the person next to her.] I wasn’t kidding.

Jane: OK. Let’s get back to Mrs. Smith’s birthday party. We need to decide on food, decorations, and a guest list.

Jean: Well, you know Mrs. Smith’s favorite cake is chocolate and her favorite ice-cream is .
Mary: [Interrupts Jean.] Vanilla. And we can have fruit punch to drink. Chips, dip, nuts, fruit slices.

[Ring. Ring. Ring. Betty's cellular telephone rings. Betty answers the phone and starts talking to the person.]

Betty: Oh really? Yeah, sure. OK. You need me now. Well, OK, if this is the only time. [Betty hangs up the telephone and starts to leave.]

Betty: Sorry. Gotta go. My nail technician just called and she has an appointment for me now. Toodles.

[Betty leaves the room.]

Joanne: [Rolls her eyes and replies in a sarcastic tone.] Toodles.

Sally: Jean, I think having chocolate cake is a good idea, but I'm not sure about vanilla ice-cream. With Mrs. Smith bad heart, cold foods may not . . .

Mary: [Interrupts Sally.] Well, I think we should have the party on the 27th of May at 3:00 in the afternoon. That way day and evening shifts can attend the party.

Joanne: [Real sarcastic.] Hey, I got a better idea. Why not have it at 11:00 at night? That way evening and night shifts can attend the party. All the residents will be asleep and the staff can eat all the goodies.

Sally: [Ignores Joanne.] Now, let's see where we are. We will have the party on the 27th at. . .

Mary: [Interrupts Sally.] 3:00 PM.

Sally: Right. We're going to have chocolate cake, chips, dip, nuts, and punch. Who do you think we should invite, besides staff?

Jane: I think we should invite...

Mary: [Interrupts Jane.] Her sons, her daughter, her three sisters, and the preacher from her church. Oh, what's his name?

Jean: Reverend Scott. What about the Mayor and also Senator Jackson?
Joanne: Oh come on!!!! Don’t you think the Mayor and the Senator have more important things to do than attend someone’s birthday party?

Sally: [Ignores Joanne.] Yes, we’ll invite Mrs. Smith’s whole family, the Mayor, Senator Jackson, and the staff. I’ll also order a center piece for the table.

Jean: Sally, don’t forget. Mrs. Smith is allergic to roses.

Sally: Right. OK.

Jane: To summarize, we are going to have the party on the 27th...

Mary: [Interrupts Jane.] Of May.
Jane: At 3:00...

Mary: [Interrupts Jane.] In the afternoon.
Jane: We are having chocolate cake, potato...

Mary: [Interrupts Jane.] Chips, dip, nuts, and punch.
Jane: We are inviting Mrs...

Mary: [Interrupts Jane.] Smith’s family, the staff, the Mayor, and the Senator.

Sally: Sounds real good. Let’s meet again next Tuesday at 10:00 am.

Joanne: [Real sarcastic.] Oh no! I’m getting my nails done then. Maybe I can switch my appointment with Beautiful Betty.

Sally: [Ignores Joanne.] Meeting adjourned.

Is Sally a good leader? No

Why or why not? She did not acknowledge the negative behavior of some of the members. She did not have control of the group. The meeting was unpredictable and out of control. Side conversations were occurring. Members were constantly being interrupted.

If you were the leader of a group, which characters would you like to have in your group? Sally, Jane, Jean

Identify the pattern of communication among team members. Chaotic. The leader did not acknowledge the negative behavior of some of the members and did not have control of the group. The meeting was unpredictable and out of control. Side conversations were occurring. Members were constantly being interrupted.
Role Play Activity #2

Instructions: This is a skit that includes 10 characters. Read the following scene and descriptions of the 10 characters. After choosing a character or being assigned a character, take part in the role-play activity, based on how your individual characters would respond. Remember to respond in a positive, committed manner when speaking to other characters.

The Setting:

A 150-bed long-term care facility located in a small, rural town in eastern North Carolina.

The Purpose of the Meeting:

To choose a slate of candidates for the 2000 Nurse Aide of the Year.

Characters:

Steve Forrester is the administrator of the long-term care facility. He has worked at the facility for ten years. He is a good administrator and is well respected by the employees at the facility.

Mary Scott is the Director of Nursing at the long-term care facility. She has worked at the facility for ten months. She used to work as a staff development coordinator at a local facility for five years. She enjoys working at the facility and is often seen on the units helping out when needed. Mrs. Scott is the chair of the committee.

John Smith is a staff supervisor at the long-term care facility. He has worked at the facility for three years. He works hard, gets along well with others, and often works extra shifts when needed.

Betsy Stewart is a nurse aide at the long-term care facility. She has worked at the facility for three years. She was voted Nurse Aide of the Year in 1998. She is well liked by the others at the facility and treats her residents very well.

Mrs. Barnes is a 92-year old female resident who has lived at the long-term care facility. Mrs. Barnes is alert, mobile, and President of the Resident’s Association.
Mr. Meredith is the 32-year old son of a 72-year old resident living at the long-term care facility. He visits his father about three to four times a week. He often brings the staff candy and is very grateful for the excellent care that his father has received.

Other Characters:

Dr. Timothy Robbins, Medical Director of the long-term care facility

Jessica Allen, Staff Dietician

Brittany Daniels, Staff Licensed Practical Nurse

Kaitlyn Gabriel, Staff Nurse Aide
Role-Play Activity Worksheet #2

After performing in the final role-play activity, complete the following questions and participate in the final discussion.

1. How did you feel in your role?

2. Did you like your character? Why or why not?

3. How did the team perform as a whole?

4. Was Mrs. Scott an effective leader? Why or why not?

5. Did everyone participate in the role play activity?

6. What positive roles did you observe during the role-play activity?

7. Would you like to work at the long-term care facility described in the activity? Why or why not?
