Is there a problem?
You can ask for a hearing.

If you think we are wrong or you have new information, you have the right to a hearing. You must ask for this hearing within 60 days (or 90 days if you have a good reason for delay). This hearing is a meeting to review your case and give you the correct benefits if it was wrong.

Call or write your caseworker to ask for a hearing. A local hearing will be held within 5 days of your request unless you ask for it to be postponed. The hearing can be postponed, for good reasons, for as much as 10 calendar days. Then, if you think the decision in the local hearing is wrong, call or write your caseworker WITHIN 15 DAYS to ask for a second hearing. The second hearing is before a state hearing official.

If you are requesting a hearing about disability, call or write your caseworker to ask for a hearing. There is no local hearing. A state hearing officer holds the disability hearing.

Did you know you have the right to be represented?

You may have someone speak for you at your hearing, such as a relative or a paralegal or attorney obtained at your expense. Free legal services may be available in your community. Contact your nearest Legal Aid or Legal Services office, or call 1-877-694-2464 toll free.
