We recently collected $ _____ on this claim you owed for overissued _____ benefits. This collection was made through the North Carolina Education Lottery. If you have more than one debt, part of the total collection amount may be applied to another debt. Each debt is reported on a separate notice.

The North Carolina Education Lottery which made the collection may have also advised you of the amount collected. If the amount collected is greater than the amount of this notice, the difference is due to an administrative charge for that collection.

The amount of the administrative charge you paid does not reduce the amount you owe.
